

Villa Cuareama

Region: Costa Blanca Sleeps: 8

Overview

A truly impressive affair, Villa Cuareama is a striking outpost in the gentle outskirts of Moraira. Seeming like a luxurious white ship of some kind, perhaps a grand old river steamer or sailing vessel, Villa Cuareama is nonetheless a very recently refurbished property, boasting new high range interior and exterior furnishings and modern interior architecture.

Fully fenced, walking down a few stairs takes you out on to the main terrace area overlooking the pool before turning inside to the cushy living area. It is tastefully outfitted with stylish woven couches, rugs and plants, and equipped with English channeled satellite TV, DVD player and wifi outlet. Just offside there is a brand new galley style kitchen with granite worktops and a door so you can take your freshly cooked meals outside in to the sunshine. Alternatively, there is a woven dining set with an impressive floor to ceiling mirror, reflecting the twinkle of the many charming baubles and lights scattered around,

Up a grand affair of an open plan stair well, we find the bedrooms, the master of which has access to the quirky balcony that rings the property, with steps leading down to the poolside. The other two bedrooms are also impressive, with plenty of space, modern storage units and access to the marbled bathrooms.

The garden, featuring the crystal clear pool surrounded by mediterrainian shrubs and trees also contains a small self contained annexe with a bedroom, kitchen and WC. Overall, this is an immaculately presented villa with an enchanting yet modern taste.

Location & Local Information

Located in a beautiful villa neighbourhood between two canals that join together before spilling out on to the Moraira coast, just follow the river to get to town, or take a stroll to the local shops and cafes. However if you fancy a turn in more rural surroundings, just head north for beautiful spanish fields and plains.

Though a resort town, Moraira takes great pride in its maintained connection to its roots as a quaint fishing village. Great care is taken to maintain a whimsical and tasteful feel to the otherwise well equipped town that can provide easy access to all necessary commodities, and several unnecessary (but extremely fun) ones. The surrounding countryside is also breathtaking and highly accessible, with plenty of scenic walks and vineyards just waiting to be explored.

Nestled between mountains and the sea, the jewel of the ever popular Costa Blanca has never the less not sold out to the tourism boom. As a result its charming waterfronts and beaches are rarely crowded, and there is a huge range of local shops and markets along with supermarkets for more basic necessities, and a huge range of international cuisine if you fancy something different. Most exciting is the traditional daily morning fish market situated in the towns marina, where that mornings catch attracts eager crowds of visitors and locals.

Activities for adults include art galleries, local shopping, Jet Ski hire, water skiing, deep sea fishing, diving tuition and equipment hire, tennis courts, a golf course and mountain bike hire. However the town is also truly child friendly. Specially designed parks are situated throughout the town along with mini-golf and funfairs. The beaches are safe, well kept and accessible from the main town through a lush series of parks that negates the need to cross any roads. If you need to travel further afield, it is also an easy drive to Gudalest, Benidorm, Calpe, Javea, Valencia, Alicante and Denia
